World Premiere: commissioned by Dr. Marilyn Mason with funds provided by the Welsh Arts Council.

Dr. Marilyn Mason is Professor of Music at the University of Michigan School of Music at Ann Arbor, Michigan, U.S.A. She is also the University organist and chairman of the organ department.

Marilyn Mason is regarded as the best known lady organist in the U.S.A., and has been responsible for commissioning many new works. Her photo in Sumner's book "The Organ" where she is seen seated at the organ in her own home has made her name familar to all organists in the English speaking world.

This recital is being recorded for a Radio 3 broadcast By the B.B.C.

Coffee is served in the Cathedral Hall adjoining the Cloister immediately after the concert. The audience is asked to vacate the Cathedral as soon as possible after the concert in order to allow the Verger to lock up.

Thank you.
