

THE CATHEDRAL CHURCH

OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE

ORGAN RECITAL

SUNDAY — 3:30 p.m.

The Organ Recital presented each week at the Cathedral is intended as an act of worship — a preparation for Evensong. In order that an atmosphere in keeping with this purpose be maintained, it is requested that there be no talking during the recital or prior to Evensong.

Sunday, August 2, 1959
Marilyn Mason
Organist of the University of Michigan

Grand Choeur Dialogue	Gigout
Concerto V in F Major Larghetto; Allegro; Alla Siciliana; Presto	Handel
Flourish and Fugue	John Cook

First Performance

The composer is organist and master of the choristers at the Anglican Cathedral in London, Ontario, and composer in residence for the Stratford Festival. This work was commissioned by Marilyn Mason and is dedicated to her.

The recital next Sunday will be played by Enid M. Woodward with Ann Woodward (Viola). The program will be:

Prelude and Fugue in A	Bach
"Nun komm', der Heiden Heiland")
"Nun freut euch, Lieben Christen g'mein"	) Bach
Concerto in G for viola	Telemann
Andante (Symphonie Gothique)	Widor
Maestoso; Andante sostenuto; poco vivace	Schroeder