Marilyn Mason

Marilyn Mason is Chairman of the Department of Organ of the University of Michigan. She has been guest Professor at Columbia University, and also at Union Theological Seminary where she received the Doctorate of Sacred Music degree in 1954. She has been heard in recitals throughout North America and Europe. Dr. Mason was the first American woman to play in Westminster Abbey, when she represented the United States at the International Congress of Organists in 1957. Subsequent tours of England and the Continent have included a return engagement at Westminster Abbey and appearances in Vienna, and Berlin. The summer of 1960 she played four concerts at the Auditorio Nacional in Mexico City, being the first woman organist to play in Latin America. She has a special interest in contemporary music, and has commissioned many composers to write for the organ.

PRESS REVIEWS

Miss Mason's position as one of the foremost American organists is unquestioned. FORT WORTH "Press"

Some of the most brilliant organ playing ever heard in the Cleveland area. . . . Marilyn Mason makes any instrument she plays a thrilling thing to hear. CLEVELAND "The American Organist"

RECITAL AN EVENING TO BE REMEMBERED — The high point of the recital came with the performance of Bach's most dazzling virtuoso work, the Prelude-Fugue in D major. The interpretation was one of taste and imagination, joined with a hand-and-foot dexterity which serves the bidding of a discerning musicianship.

WINNIPEG "Tribune"

Every piece of music on her program was eminently worthwhile, and every piece was played not only with brilliance but with affection, respect, imagination, taste and vitality. SACRAMENTO

Her gracious personality and artistic genius filled the auditorium with long to be cherished memories of an evening of truly great organ music as performed by a master. CHAMBERSBURG "Public Opinion"

The entire program provoked some of the greatest enthusiasm of the whole congress . . . A stunning performance. LONDON

(Westminster Abbey) "The Diapason"

DR. MASON'S PLAYING IS DYNAMITE MIDDLESBROUGH (England) "Evening Gazette"

Miss Mason is a player of remarkable technique and with an ear for tonal effects. BRISTOL (England) "Evening World"

She showed a controlled virtuosity as with perfect fingers and feet she played works by Bach and Reger. BERLIN (Germany) "Berliner MorgenPost"
