

Get Lost in Music...

THE LITTLE ORCHESTRA SOCIETY OF TOLEDO

James J. Hammann, Music Director

MARILYN MASON, GUEST ARTIST

November 4, 1978

8:00 P.M.

PROGRAM

The Four Seasons "Winter" Antonio Vivaldi

- I. Allegro non molto
- II. Largo
- III. Allegro

Shirley Hooser Miller, Violin soloist

Concerto in E Flat for Organ, C. P. E. Bach

- I. Allegro Moderato
- II. Adagio sostenuto
- III. Allegro

Marilyn Mason, Organ soloist

INTERMISSION

*Pageant (Organ Solo) Leo Sowerby

Air for Flute and Strings, Alec Wilder

Sally Vallongo, Flute soloist

*Classic Concerto, Leo Sowerby

- I. Merrily, with snap
- II. Dreamily and rhapsodically, with poignant expression
- III. In Broad Style

Marilyn Mason, Organ soloist

ORCHESTRA PERSONNEL

1st Violin Shirley Hooser Miller, Concertmaster
Patricia Budner
William Klickman

2nd Violin Lisa Lantz
Randy Workman
Johan Bast

Viola Phillip Rose
Alice Petersen

Violoncello Steven Taylor
Sally Rocco

Doublebass Susan Loerhke

Percussion Brady Parcel

Flute Sally Vallongo

Stage Manager Raymond Clark

*The works by Leo Sowerby are performed in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the composer's death. A native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, he spent many summers at Waliro boy choir camp at Put In Bay, just east of Toledo. Marilyn Mason first performed this concerto with the composer conducting at Westminster Abbey, London, England.

We wish to thank First Baptist Church for the use of its beautiful sanctuary and organ for this concert.