1986-1987 Music Series

Sunday, November 2, 1986
4:30 p.m.

ORGAN RECITAL
JAMES HAMMANN

James Hammann, the new director of music at Jefferson Avenue Church, will play works by William Faulkes, Paul Hindemith, Felix Mendelssohn, and Josef Rheinberger, on the 68 rank, four manual E. M. Skinner organ. These selections are designed to display the many-sided personality of this renowned instrument. Mr Hammann holds degrees from Ohio Wesleyan University and the University of Michigan. He was also awarded the Associate Diploma by the American Guild of Organists. A frequent recitalist, he has performed throughout the United States.

Sunday, March 29, 1987
4:30 p.m.

THE WAY OF THE CROSS
MARILYN MASON

Internationally famous concert organist, Marilyn Mason will play the epic Lenten devotional work, "The Way of the Cross," by Marcel Dupre. This work, inspired by Paul Claudel's poetry about the stations of the cross captures in words and music the gripping passion story and events surrounding Holy Week. The poetry will be read by Rev. Peter Smith, senior minister of Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church. The performance will be highlighted by slide projections of masterpieces of visual art inspired from the passion story.

Sunday, May 17, 1987
4:30 p.m.

CHORAL AND ORGAN MUSIC
by
FELIX MENDELSSOHN

The chancel choir, chamber orchestra and Jefferson Avenue's assistant organist, Dorothy Holden, will present a program of the music by Felix Mendelssohn. The choir will perform the beautiful oratorio, "Lauda Zion." Mrs. Holden will play Mendelssohn's Fourth Organ Sonata. The program will be conducted by James Hammann.
