MARILYN MASON is University Organist and Chairman of the Organ Department at the University of Michigan. She was a pupil of Palmer Christian in her Michigan student days and also studied with Nadia Boulanger and Maurice Durufle. She attended Union Theological Seminary, where she earned the degree of Doctor of Sacred Music. Dr. Mason was the first American woman to play in Westminster Abbey, the first woman organist to play in Latin America and the first American organist to play in Egypt. Numerous invitations have taken her to five continents. She has served as adjudicator at almost every major competition in the world. Her dedication to contemporary music is evidenced in the 35 organ works which she has commissioned and premiered. Currently she is pursuing her commitment to stylistic integrity through scholarly research into the construction and tonal design of historic European instruments. Recently four major study tours have focused on Baroque organs in France, North Germany, Saxony, and Spain. Dr. Mason is represented by Murtagh/McFarlane.
