Timeline:

Marilyn will arrive at Hill at 9:30 am. She is completely familiar with the organ, and we will be duplicating exactly what she did for us last year.

Program

1. Academic Procession

Note to Musicians: The procession should take approximately 2 ½ minutes; Lisa will keep an eye on the stage seating to let you know when to wrap up.

As soon as all members of the platform party are in place, segue immediately into the National Anthem at Lisa's cue.

2. National Anthem "The Star Spangled Banner"

3. Welcome by David C. Munson, Jr., Robert J. Vlastic Dean of Engineering

4. Speakers

5. Conferral of Degrees (13 departments with ENG Physics being the last)

6. The Victors (Parking Lot Victors with longer intro & shorter ending)

Note to Musicians: As soon as the last ENG Physics student receives his memento, Lisa will cue you to play the complete 54 bar introduction ("Now for a cheer they are here, triumphant.....Here they come with banners flying....Far we their praises sing.....Hurrah!") and then once through the most familiar part of the song ("Hail to the victors valiant....champions of the West.").

7. Yellow and the Blue

8. Recession of the Platform Party

Note to Musicians: Melanie will cue you when to begin. While it will only take about 1 ½ minutes for the platform party to exit, the recessional music can last 3-5 minutes.
